

Stroke 9, Just Can't Wait

Another summer coming with the feeling it brings
Another reason to avoid all the permanent things
Before you know what time it is it's time to go
And reattach all the strings
But you got me going
So many places
You got to be knowing
What that look on my face is

I just can't wait
I just can't wait
I just can't wait for you to say
That you want me
That you want me
I just can't wait for you to say that you want me

Well you need sunlight for things to go right
It just takes a taste you know
And every single little bit of love that I spread is coming straight for you
Would it be all right to go out tonight?
It doesn't matter where we go
You're the only one that I want to be near
And try to get to know
Cause you got eyes that I would love to look through
A life that I can't wait to get in to

As long as I can see what you see
As long as it's what you believe
As long as I can see what you see
As long as it's what you believe

Feeling all alone in my little head again
Feels so good just to sit and take it in
Back home in my big bed again
You're gone and I'm spent
But wherever you are
I want to be
I can't stop thinking about what you did to me
