

Student Rick, Monday Morning

Monday morning and time to get out of bed work sucks, this is the part that I dread 7:30 the bus came early again my luck, my girlfriend turned gay

and now im sitting here
trying to find myself
and I feel like im heading nowhere its only monday

[Chorus]
Sunny monday
and nothings going my way forgotten tradgedy
it only rains on me
but im still breathing
will this day ever end
its only monday

times are changing
how will I ever survive
with no job
im luck to be alive
im on a journey
to dig myself out of this
what a drag
all the good times I miss

trying to find myself
and I feel im heading nowhere
its only monday

[Chorus x3]
