

Student Rick, Through The Window

Summertime when I cant wake to you Ill have this feeling in my throat its the feeling that I know I miss you and I cant let it show

breathe in breathe out Im losing all I know
breathe in breathe out
Im losing all I know
woah, losing all I know seasons change as I look out the window trading memories I know thinking of the things I left behind me miles away from all I know...

[x2]
breathe in breathe out
Im losing all I know
breathe in breathe out
I'm losing all I know
