

Sturm und drang, Rising son

Lost in darkness, like a shadow there I was Always searching for tomorrow yet to come
Never thought I would see again, see the light shine upon me
Can't you see me coming, Coming for You baby
Coming there to take you from the light
Can't you hear me calling, Calling for you baby
So you better take on to the night, I'm the rising son!
I was haunted, but now I broke free from the spell
But now it's your time to live the nightmare all through
Never thought I would run again, run free across the lands
Can't you see me coming, Coming for You baby
Coming there to take you from the light
Can't you hear me calling, Calling for you baby
So you better take on to the night, I'm the rising son!
Lost in darkness like a shadow
Always searching for tomorrow
Haunted, but I broke free
It's your time now
So look at you all through
Can't you see me coming, Coming for You baby
Coming there to take you from the light
Can't you hear me calling, Calling for you baby
So you better take on to the night,
Can't you see me coming
Can't you hear me calling
I'm the rising son!
