

Styx, Little Suzie

Somebody lookin' for the answer, Somebody dyin' to cut a deal Somebody
got a cure to cancer, Somebody drunk behind the wheel But me, I'm just tryin' to find my little Suzie Somebody bustin' illegal aliens, Somebody burnin' Hollywood
Somebody
tryin' to shoot the president, Someone abused and misunderstood
But, me,
I'm just holding up a sign for little Suzie Somebody reachin' out for Jesus, Somebody lookin' for a sign
Somebody
said they spotted Elvis, He was healin' the sick and leadin' the blind
But me, I'm just tryin' to make some time for my little Suzie Yeah
me, I'm sneakin' up behind, don't you hear me say I won't surrender, I will survive, so help me Jesus We'll be together
until the end of all space and time Everybody's got an infomercial, Everybody's psychic on the phone Somebody had a sex change reversal, Somebody thinks nobody knows Somebody cryin' out for justice, Somebody shootin' someone's kid
Somebody caught the perpetrator, Somebody swears they never did
But me, I'm just makin' time for my little Suzie Yeah me, I'm playin' my guitar for my little Suzie
The world is gonna turn from here until doomsday
But I don't give a damn long as I've got little Suzie
I won't surrender, I will survive, so help me Jesus
We'll be together
until the end of all space and time Somebody's awaiting execution, Somebody's dyin' to pull the switch
Somebody cries another martyr, Somebody screams "fry the son of a bitch"
But me, I'm just spending time with little Suzie Yeah me, I'm playing my guitar for little Suzie Oh me, I'm safe in the arms of little Suzie
