Styx, Little Suzie

Somebody lookin' for the answer,

Somebody dyin' to cut a deal

Somebody

got a cure to cancer,

Somebody drunk behind the wheel

But me, I'm just tryin' to find my little Suzie

Somebody bustin' illegal aliens,

Somebody burnin' Hollywood

Somebody

tryin' to shoot the president,

Someone abused and misunderstood

But, me,

I'm just holding up a sign for little Suzie

Somebody reachin' out for Jesus,

Somebody lookin' for a sign

said they spotted Elvis,

He was healin' the sick and leadin' the blind

But me, I'm just tryin' to make some time for my little Suzie

Yeah

me, I'm sneakin' up behind, don't you hear me say

I won't surrender, I will survive, so help me Jesus

We'll be together

until the end of all space and time

Everybody's got an infomercial,

Everybody's psychic on the phone

Somebody had a sex change reversal,

Somebody thinks nobody knows

Somebody cryin' out for justice,

Somebody shootin' someone's kid

Somebody caught the perpetrator,

Somebody swears they never hih

But me, I'm just makin' time for my little Suzie

Yeah me, I'm playin'

my guitar for my little Suzie

The world is gonna turn from here until doomsday

But I don't give a damn long as I've got little Suzie

I won't surrender, I will survive, so help me Jesus

until the end of all space and time

Somebody's awaiting execution,

Somebody's dyin' to pull the

Somebody cries another martyr,

Somebody screams " fry the son of a bitch"

But me, I'm just spending time with little Suzie

Yeah me. I'm playing my guitar for little Suzie

Oh me, I'm safe in the arms of little

Suzie
