

Sub-Urban Tribe, Lost Time

Crawling out from minority to taste the power of majority You found no cure bets set so high Gaining speed drive with closed eyes Man your throne take a look at your empire

Hey
break away
with all the lost time in your hands before you're too deep in quicksand you're pale and tired of it all So you better step away from the game
with all the lost time in your hands
before you're too deep in quicksand run away
break away
with all the lost time in your hands

Maintain your state of impurity to obtain some security Applause encore hear them scream for more Drag your raft to a safe tame shore Be sure to pull it high so the tide can grab you
