Subb, Lifetime

"It's been a lifetime since i told you i care It took a second, though it felt like a day I want you closer, closer than you are now Conversations, they lead us nowhere

If somehow, you feel to complain I'm here just watching over you It takes more than assumptions To make me understand your point

It's been a lifetime since the day you were there Blinked a moment, it all burnt away Just say something, anything at all I'm used to i won't take the fall

If somehow you fail If somehow you just try to make it through the day Then stay close to me maybe i'll try to take you through Take you through on another day

Another day..."
