

Subb, No Need To Stay

Last night, it was not funny when
You said: "I think we should be friends"
Last night, it was not funny when
You said: "I think we should be friends";

It's not funny when,
I knew from the start
That what we've built was
Gonna fall apart
I should have listened to
What my friends said:
You don't need to have
Your heart broken again

No need for me to stay, no, no!
I had enough, yeah!
No need for everyone around
To be involved, yeah!
No need for all lies you said
Too stuck in my head, yeah!
No need for all the games you played
To have come my way

It's true that I don't need that kind of relation.
I'm dating girls to feed up my emotions
I guess it's not a good thing but I know now
Why should I act like a victim when you treat me that way?

No need for me to stay, no, no!
I had enough, yeah!
No need for everyone around
To be involved, yeah!
No need for all lies you said
Too stuck in my head, yeah!
No need for all the games you played
To have come my way

No need for me to stay, no, no!
I had enough, yeah!
No need for everyone around
