

Subb, Respect

So we're almost there, it's the year two thousand
Who would've thought that many years ago
Many have predicted the end of the world
And we almost got there, but now we're still alive
Don't sit on your ass and start complaining
Cause man, it ain't the end of the game
Hope will not save this world, but action will
Yeah, it's time to all get together and sing unity
In every culture, in every society
There's a plague that havoc peace and unity
And destroys any hope of universal empathy
Discrimination respect the difference
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up shoved it, shoved it
So! So! So!

(Verse)

(Pre-chorus)

(Chorus)

There's a war coming down, i can't lay back
Tell me how am i gonna compete that? War and that violence!
Tell me who's there(who's there?)
Who's raising the flag?

(Solo)

(Verse)

(Pre-chorus)
