

Subb, Take Your Time

I have no choice but to tell you
That I've been chillin' with a couple of my friends
I have no choice but to ignore that
You've been waiting for an answer all night long
With all the lies can you tell me
Why are you listening to me all along
And I'm trying to, I'm trying to tell you now
That I am really fuckin' scared
You said, "You better take your time
And think twice before you fail
You better use my line
Or they will take you down to jail"
