

Subb, What Do You Want Next?

The way you look at things it amounts to The same
As looking through a barrel of a shotgun that's loaded
You take things as they are, you take things as they are
That's what's supposed to be, it's your philosophy
You want it, you got it so what do you want next?
The money and The fame, don't leave out The rest
It's so funny The difference between me and you
A question I ask myself, but I don't have a clue
If you can understand, then I can be a man
I'll be there with a grin, ,I'll show up with my face
You take things as they are, you take things as they are
That's how it's got to be, it's your philosophy

(Chorus)

(Breakdown (chorus))

You want it

You got it

What do you want next?
