

Subb, Why Passions Last?

Designed from the cloth you wear
Made to shine so, rendered ever so
Serve the function, simplified at most
Just remind her that you'll never go!
This is why the passions last
Find the question then you'll find the answers why
I bet you wanna be that guy
No pretensions just a measured sigh

Slipped away this second gasp
Followed you around then i still do now
Ever stopped to see you but recall your words
As you were just let the weather past
