

Subscribe, Delirium I - Blue Mescaline

Please set me free
Facility instead of heft so
Let me be me, set me free!

Hard is the day cram-full the way
Do not receive this!
Get down and pray
A new mascara will be gliding over your face
Seem so blue consciously blue

Ref:

This thing will fall away

Stay on guard and wake me another day! x2
Until I sleep I dream of a strawberry girl
And her cute elfin pony whores at Feastland-source
And then the mole just pulled the screen
Turning the tale into your nightmare
Frozen stare, empty stare.
Action, bye! Activate the pineal-gland!
No function! Your brain interruption's on.

Ref

When will you see unimpendedly
Underneath the shackle that hides you from reality?

There's an apple falling from the tree
Far away from this reality.
finding reasons, seeking Blueberry try to find in this reality x3

Smile on your face but I hover to get the reality am I mortal?
I even try to cover the tears
on my anaemic face
I try to cover the tears
will i drift in the now.
There's an apple falling from the tree

Far away from this reality
There's an apple falling from the tree
I'm already dead you can't kill me now

That is your designation.
Kill me now!
I'm already dead you can't kill me
