Certify! Shining stars!

Although the galley's above
and the water's beneath still the water reigns

Can you see the dance
Can you hear the sweet music
The ships are flouncing

Thats how the water reigns rippin' those chains

Cataclysm, go rage yourself throw your foam to reveal your anger
This is the drift that sends on the squall.
It calls you all

Ref:

shattered minds go rise again!
autocrats are putting you off more and more know your enemy you depend on!

they're putting you off more still the water calls you all
Are you ready to conquer the mast?
Erase!

Although the galley's above
Still the water, still the water reigns Althought the wheel's still yours it won't last forever

Ref

History taught you negating too Ressurrected while the water strips your lies Non of us would be better
If we manouvered all you stupid, dumb, bovines!
