

Subseven, Up To You

Your own fault - it's new news
To hear I blame this on you
Just enjoy - it's your choice
To see success in your shoes
Smile or frown - up or down
Can't let go of all your dreams
Feel the heat - you never sleep
But you can do more than it seems

I leave this up to you (must be up to you)
To choose what you must do (through fire and the flames)
I leave this up to you (must be up to you)
To do what you should do

Where were you - I lost you
Right beside you all the way
I chose to - to quit you
But you just threw dirt in my face
Whine and shout - can't figure out
"Circumstance" - is your excuse
You lie around - I call you out
You're so much more, son, than you choose
