

Suburban Rhythm, Lust

When you see the pretty girl just walking down the street in the skimpy black skirt and just showing all her flesh.
And the little mini-skirt that's riding up her ass,
and the silky long hair that's just riding down her back.
And the slender long legs that wrap around you,
and the cute little face that's smiling in the wind.
How do you feel? How do you feel?
How do you feel? "It's this feeling called lust"
That girl looks mighty sexy, that girl looks mighty fine.
It's the way she moves her hips, oh I wish that girl were mine.
You see her, you want her, when she flash that sunny smile.
When those full red lips say to you, "Let's stay awhile"
Woah, those eyes, those hips I want those hips, just want to make me scream.
Oh my God these things of lust will take me to the grave.
How do you feel? How do you feel?
How do you feel? "It's this feeling called lust"
