

Suck For Sympathy, All My Regrets

I'm in a one man show and I can't Leave the stage you know
They're putting nails through my hands and feet
Might be a tragedy I'm in now
Got no place to go
Do I only exist on a paper sheet

Life is the irony of all fate
All the others fight against Seems like I'm the king of broken dreams
I am so lucky on the outside
Inside I'm desperate
It's never as easy as it seems

Chorus (x2)
All the things I said
Still circling in my head and I
Head and I regret

The doors I opened once are closed now
Cause I shut out the day
Wanna see no sun to hurt my eyes
It's hard to notice things are over
Cause you can't change yourself
I lost my place, I paid the price

Chorus (x4)
All the things I said
Still circling in my head and I
Head and I regret

All the things I said
Their running through my head
and I, I regret

All the things I said
Their running through my head
and I, I regret
