

Suck For Sympathy, Down

No angels are calling Don't wanna hear them anymore Can't stop me from falling So what are you waiting for

Turn your back on me
Don't waste your tears Walk away from me...

You can't stay...down here with me where no sun's shining through Walk away...leave me here there's nothing you can do to set me free
again

Your voice on the phone Still speaks in angels's tongues
I'd rather be alone
With all the rights, and all the wrongs

All that I know
You can't come back
So please, please go

You can't stay...down here with me
where no sun's shining through
Walk away...leave me here there's nothing you can do to set me free
again

I am lost, I am alone
Nobody home, nobody home
No need to cry, maybe to die Down here alone...

You can't stay...down here with me
nothing you can do to set me free
again

set me free
again
