

Suck For Sympathy, How It Feels

When all the clouds are gone
Stars appearing one by one
A little light that shines on me tonight
You're the one who saved my soul
I start losing control
Thought I know that I'm a-doing right

Not a 1000 miles could keep me
Away from you
I would run to you until my feet
start bleeding in my shoes

When I'm heading home to you
All I wanna do
Is resting at your side the whole night long I'll do the best I can
Not to lose you again
So darling I won't do you no wrong

Not a 1000 miles could keep me
Away from you
I would run to you until my feet
start bleeding in my shoes

Not a 1000 miles could keep me
Away from you
I would run to you until my feet
start bleeding in my shoes
