

Suck For Sympathy, Someone

Don't you think I'm right this time
You got lost in the end
Now you're standing next in line
Of being more than a friend

Chorus (x2)
Don't you know it?
(...Don't you know it?)
There is someone...just like me!

Complaining bout this lonley nights
Well it's time for a change
There's nothing left but you and me
And some things to rearrange

Chorus (x2)
Don't you know it?
(...Don't you know it?)
There is someone...just like me!

I try to give up
On you
I try to give up
On you

Chorus (x2)
Don't you know it?
(...Don't you know it?)
There is someone...just like me!
