

Suede, One Love

And baby is it one love, one mind, one word the kids all follow
One word, one mind, one love the kids all follow
And they're the ones that rock the beats
With the language of the streets

One love, one mind, one word the kids all follow
One word, one mind, one love the kids all follow
And they're the lovers walking by
With tomorrow in their eyes

Maybe the sun doesn't shine on them all the time
And maybe the media's feeding them headlines Maybe their lives are decided like rabbits in the headlights
But maybe they can have it all tonight

One love, one mind, one word the kids all follow
One word, one mind, one love the kids all follow
And they're the ones that rock the beats
With the language of the streets

And maybe the holes in their souls never get filled
And maybe their words are absurd
They lack communication skills
And maybe they've ceased to believe
In the celebrities and their spotlights
But maybe they still got the rage tonight

It's one love, one mind,
one word the kids all follow
One word, one mind, one love the kids all follow

With shit on their shoes
Got fuck all to do
Got nothing to lose
So let's all follow
One-track minds with nothing inside
Got nothing to hide
So let's all follow
Let's all follow
Let's all follow
Let's all follow

Let's stay hungry
