

Suede, Superstar

You and I we want to ride the ocean
You and me we want to sail the stars
You superglue me to a new emotion
Mend the pieces of my broken heart

And I dissolve into a kind of limbo
When I watch you on a VCR
Like Al Pacino or a young De Niro
I'm gonna pin your face on my bedroom wall

Cos you're my superstar
You're my ecstasy
You've got me falling apart
You're just a fantasy
That's no good for me
Come on and take a piece of my heart

You tell the rain to stay away forever
You tell the sky to dry its eyes tonight
And I'll be watching you through heavy weather
I'll be the friend who is at the end of the telescopic sight

Cos you're my superstar
You're my ecstasy
You've got me falling apart
You're just a fantasy
That's no good for me
Come on and take a piece of my heart

Watch it fall apart
Watch it fall apart
Watch it fall apart

You're my superstar
You're my ecstasy
You've got me falling apart
You're just make believe
You're no good for me
Come on and take a piece of my heart

Yeah we can be together, sleep forever
Ooh, come on let's run
Yeah we can sleep forever, be together
Come on let's rot
