

Suffering And The Hideous Thieves, Sex Is Dead

Didn't know you'd leave me
Out in the rain
Didn't mean to wait for us to break
Got your name tattooed 'round my arm
Think I'll cover it up
You've harmed me tonight

Waited my whole lifetime
To be with you
Now I'm mopping up
The blood that you drew
Can we separate without all this clotted sin
You ripped apart the cracks in my skin
See, you ripped apart the cracks
And the shards in my skin
And I'm dying for you
I'm dying for you
And I'm shamed

I wanted to win without trying
I can't hold it back anymore
I've taken a lifetime for granted
Oh, I can't sit cold anymore

My sex is dead
And yours is quickly becoming red
All sex is dead
And ours has no life anymore

Never thought I wasted your time
Never thought that I could ever cross that line
Now I see my impact on you
Infecting you with self hatred and pity
That I force upon you every day
And no one can ever bring back what's been dead
For you are my true love
And no one can ever bring back what you're dying for Jump back through my twisting tide
The cards we've been dealt are on fire
And no one can ever put out these flames again

I wanted to win without trying
I can't hold it back anymore
Taken a lifetime for granted
Oh, I can't sit cold anymore

My sex is dead
And yours is quickly becoming red
All sex is dead
And ours has no life anymore
