

Sufjan Stevens, Shit Talk

No more fighting
No more talking shit
Do as I say, not as I give up
Not as I've failed to live
In the future, there will be a terrible cost
For all that we've left undone
Deliver me from everything I've put off
And all that we've lost
I will always love you, but I cannot live with you

I will always love you

No more fighting, I've nothing left to give
I've nothing but atrophy
Did I cross you?
Did I fail to believe
In positive thoughts?
Our romantic second chance is dead
I buried it with the hatchet
Quit your antics, put them at the foot of the bed
And set it on fire
I will always love you, but I cannot look at you

I will always love you
I will always love you
I will always love you

Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall
Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall
Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall
Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall

Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall
Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall
I will always love you
Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall
I will always love you
Hold me closely
Hold me tightly lest I fall

No, I don't wanna fight at all
No, I don't wanna fight at all
No, I don't wanna fight at all
No, I don't wanna fight at all

[illegible]

I don't wanna fight at all
I will always love you
I don't wanna fight at all
I will always love you
I don't wanna fight at all
I will always love you
I don't wanna fight at all
I will always love you
I don't wanna fight at all

I will always love you
