

Sufjan Stevens, Tell Me You Love Me

My love
I've lost my faith
In everythin
Tell me you love me anyway
Tell me you love me anyway
Tell me you love me

My love
I feel myslef unreveling
Tell me you love me anyway
Tell me you love me anyway
Tell me you love me

My love
I feel the darkness
In my back
Something inside me like a wave
Tell me you love me

Right now i could use a change of heart
Or kiss before everything falls apart
Can you tell me this love will last forever?

And as the world turns makeing such a mess
What;s the point of it when everything's dispossessed?
Can we carry this love acrost the desert?

My love
I wish i was a potoghrpher
Perfect and lovely in a frame
Tell me you love me

My love
My life could be an epitaph
Something to write upon my grave
Tell me you love me
