

Sugababes, Open The Door

Baby, show me
I want you to hold me
Never felt this empty before
I can't take it no more

'Cause I noticed
We ain't got that closeness
Like the way we had it before
Baby, open the door

Baby we ain't got the time (the time)
Tell me what's on your mind (your mind)
Even when you're here I'm feeling so alone
You used to work me so hard (so hard)
Now we're in rooms apart (apart)
Tell me you can really see what's going on

I can't wait
Tell me before it gets too late
Tell me that my heart won't break
I don't wanna let it go

Baby, show me
I want you to hold me
Never felt this empty before
I can't take it no more

'Cause I noticed
We ain't got that closeness
Like the way we had it before
Baby, open the door

Lately all the thrill is gone (is gone)
Everything I do is wrong (is wrong)
You keep throwing water in the flames inside
Can't we make our life brand new? (brand new)
Baby, just me and you (and you)
'Cause I can't go on like this another night

I can't wait
Tell me before it gets too late
Tell me that my heart won't break
I don't wanna let it go

Baby, show me
I want you to hold me
Never felt this empty before
I can't take it no more

'Cause I noticed
We ain't got that closeness
Like the way we had it before
Baby, open the door

I could say I hate you now
But you see the real me isn't me
I can say that I'm in doubt
Take my hand, say you'll turn me around

Baby, show me
I want you to hold me
Never felt this empty before
I can't take it no more

'Cause I noticed
We ain't got that closeness
Like the way we had it before
Baby, open the door
