

Sugar Jones, Never Leave Hurt Alone

Chorus: Why don't you ever leave hurt alone?
it's over now u better stay gone this is one thing i can't condome Never leave hurt alone
y can't u ever leave hurt alone?
I can't deny u feeling so strong Cuz i can't love no one but u Should've left hurt alone

seen u on the street watching u im watching u so hard to speak small talk, not this week trying to avoid misery staying a lil while cuz u can't see(oh) ur making me feel a tragedy (yea) all over again it's scaring me cuz i don't no if i could pretend. that i'm in love no more

I should have kept on walking but something inside of me said "baby it would worth a time talking to u" now i'm falling n i feel like a fool

Why don't you ever leave hurt alone?
it's over now u better stay gone
this is one thing i can't condome Never leave hurt alone
y can't u ever leave hurt alone?
I can't deny u feeling so strong
Cuz i can't love no one but u
Should've left hurt alone

I really don't no what to do not even u im so confused already felt all the pain end of view cuz in my mind deja vu when my heart's telling me to take a chance all i see is u, true romance u already know u can have this fun but just don't wanna b taken in..then a man

I should have kept on walking
but something inside of me said "baby it would worth a time talking to u"
now i'm falling n i feel like a fool

Why don't you ever leave hurt alone?
it's over now u better stay gone
this is one thing i can't condome Never leave hurt alone
y can't u ever leave hurt alone?
I can't deny u feeling so strong
Cuz i could have love no one but u

whoa..whoa..oh oh....

have u ever been told between heart n mind it's so hard to find the soul that we once share(soul we once shared) the only way to b swallowed by pride let u back inside n dedicate my life to u oh yea yea..

Why don't you ever leave hurt alone?(why don't u ever leave) this is one thing i can't condome(I can't condome no)
never leave hurt alone

Why don't you ever leave hurt alone?
it's over now u better stay gone
this is one thing i can't condome Never leave hurt alone
y can't u ever leave hurt alone?
I can't deny u feeling so strong
Cuz i could have love no one but u Should've left hurt alone yea..ooo...y can't u ever leave it...

fades out*
