

Sugar Ray, Blues From A Gun

I want to watch the world cry
I couldn't open my eyes
I almost spoke but can't speak
Still being shelled all those lies

Blues from a gun
I'm not the only one
I've been fooled
They got me on the run
I've tried hard
Everything's been done
I've been fooled from blues from a gun

I start to watch the world crumble
I had to open my eyes
I start to run but I stumble
They stole the blue from the sky

Blues from a gun
I'm not the only one
I've been fooled
They got me on the run
I've tried hard
Everything's been done
I've been fooled from blues from a gun

Tears today in a way
Fears today won't go away

Blues from a gun
I'm not the only one
I've been fooled
They got me on the run
I've tried hard
Everything's been done
I've been fooled from blues from a gun

Whenever I turn around
I'm lost and I can't be found
Whenever I turn around
I'm lost and I can't be found

All these graces flying in the air now
Look at it fall, look at it fall
All these graces flying in the air now
Look at it fall
Look at it fall
Look at it fall
