

Sugar Ray, Heaven

Surrounded by broken hearts
Promises are torn apart
Everybody looking for someone in the dark
Got lost on my own Tongue tied on the phone
Everywhere I look there's a face in a place called home
Feelin' all alone in the middle of the night
Feelin' all alone when nothin' works out right Woohoh
Lyin' all alone in the middle of the night
Lyin' in a dream now everything's alright
Woohoh
Don't you know I'm in heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found you
Heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found heaven (heaven)
Surrender to a broken heart
Beat down from the start
If you think it's over baby let me know
But it's easier than it seems
Find yourself in a dream
(now I found you) If you wanna go there baby just say so found you
Feelin' all alone in the middle of the night
Feelin' all alone when nothin' works out right
Woohoh
Lyin' all alone in the middle of the night
Lyin' in a dream now everything's alright
Woohoh
Don't you know I'm in heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found you
Heaven
Feet never touch the ground now I found heaven
