

Sugar Ray, In Through The Doggie Door

Well I just got back an hour ago
I don't know where I've been
Now I'm crawlin' across the kitchen
I don't know what I've seen
Well I feel so complicated and
Our love is kinda jaded
Well I'm comin' through the doggy door again woo
Well there ain't no sence in comin' home
She knows where I've been
And it's another night out in the cold
One more time again
It's a hard time understandin'
You know you're so demanding and
I'm comin' through the doggy door again woo
I've got nothin' for ya
I've got nothin' for ya
I've got nothin' for ya baby
I've got nothin' for ya
I've got nothin' for ya
woo
My life is complicated
Our love is kinda jaded &
I'm comin' through the doggy door
I'm runnin' through the doggy door
I'm fallin' through the doggy door again
Ow!
