

Sugarbabes, When the Rain Comes

We're all here for celebration
Yeah, we all love some fun
But who's gon' be here when the parties done?
Yeah, you can talk all that big talk
But tell me can you back it up?
Really all I wanna feel is grown up love

Not just the days when we were stood in the warmth of
The sun rays, I wanna know, oh

Will you be there in the thunder?
Through the storm
Will you run or will you be there when the rain comes?
When it's pouring
In the cold
Will you go? Will you be there when the rain comes?

Ooh, ooh light
Ooh, ooh light
(Oh, oh, ooh)

All looks so good on the surface
Easy to come for the rides
But I need you here in the dark and the light

Not just the days when we were stood in the warmth of
The sun rays, I wanna know, oh

Will you be there in the thunder?
Through the storm (Ooh)
Will you run or will you be there when the rain comes? (It comes, yeah, yeah)
When it's pouring
In the cold (In the cold)
Will you go? Will you be there when the rain comes?

Don't want a temporary love
I need something permanent
Something like I know you will, when you say you will
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Nothing that can disappear, I need it to be real

Will you be there in the thunder? (Oh will you be there through the storm)
Through the storm
Will you run or will you be there when the rain comes? (Tell me, will you be there?)
When it's pouring
In the cold (In the cold)
Will you go? Will you be there when the rain comes?

I will, I will
I will, I will
I will, I will
I will, I will
I will, I will
I will, I will
I will, I will
I will, I will
