

Sugarcult, Candy

I got struck by lightning when i was caught in your brown eyes
You broke down the wall I tried to build around my heart

But I wasn't ready
My heart feels heavy
I wasn't ready
My heart feels heavy for this now

You taste like candy and you feel just right
You left your scent on my pillow last night
Oh and you do it all with a kiss

I got stung by your imagination by surprise
You got me doing crazy things I hate myself sometimes

But I wasn't ready
My heart feels heavy
I wasn't ready
My heart feels heavy for you now

You taste like candy and you feel just right
You left your scent on my pillow last night
Oh and you did it all with a kiss
Oh and you kill me off with a kiss

You taste like candy and you feel just right
You left your scent on my pillow last night
Oh and you did it all with a kiss
Oh and you kill me off with a kiss

Oh and you did it all with a kiss
