

Sugarcult, Say I'm Sorry

She's perfect, so perfect
Some things make-up can't fix
And I'm perfectly incapable of being with you
If you wanna get down
Wrap me up in plastic because I'm feeling pornographic now
If you wanna get down
I think I'm feeling sick again
We're making up with sex again

'Cause all I ever do is say I'm sorry
Words come out just like ear candy
And all I ever do is say I'm sorry
The bitter pill is sweet as candy now

If you wanna break down
You don't ever listen to your nasty disposition now
If you wanna break down
I got all the answers but my words don't ever matter

'Cause all I ever do is say I'm sorry
Words come out just like ear candy
And all I ever do is say I'm sorry
The bitter pill is sweet as candy now

I'm on the outside
I'm on the outside
I'm on the outside
Knocking on the inside
I'm on the outside
I'm on the outside
I'm on the outside
Breaking on the inside

All I ever do is say I'm sorry
Words come out just like ear candy
And all I ever do is say I'm sorry
The bitter pill is sweet as candy

All I ever do is say I'm sorry
Words come out just like ear candy
And all I ever do is say I'm sorry
The bitter pill is sweet as candy now
