

Sugarcult, Underwear

Take a life and hold it underwater
Wash the hands of all these things I've done
If the body moves inside the closet
Then all we do is stare
While she's in her underwear

All the eyes on every Sunday paper
Pictures of the horrid things I've done
If I didn't act on your addictions
Then we couldn't stare
While she's in her underwear
