Sugarland, Fall Into Me

When the weight of the world Breaks down so strong it Leaves footprints on the street And theres too many miles to face Without a few more hours sleep The storm clouds overhead won't shed Any rain to quench your thirst I wanna be the one you reach for first

When your faith is stretched so thin That you can see right through your soul And you cant find a nickel to buy a smile cuz all ur pockets all got holes You wanna shut the door and Hide before the day can get much worse I wanna be the one you reach for first

Fall into me My arms are opened wide And you dont have to say a word Cuz I already see That it's hard And you're scared And you're tired And it hurts And I wanna be the one you reach for first

I wanna be the bottle you've been drinkin with your eyes Or the road you run away on You've been runnin all your life The third row pew that you last knew As a child in church I wanna be the one you reach for first

Fall into me My arms are opened wide And you don't have to say a word Cuz I already see That it's hard And you're scared And you're tired And it hurts And I wanna be the one you reach for first

Before you turn the key Before you fall asleep Before you drift away To find some demons waiting for you In your dreams Before your arms stretched wide open Before you're reaching for the sky Before you're searching for direction And all the answers till you fall

Fall into me My arms are stretched opened wide You don't have to say a word Cuz I already see That its hard And your scared And your tired And it hurts And i wanna be the one you reach for first
