Sugarplum Fairy, Harder To Say I'm Sorry

What do you say when all your dreams faid away?
And who do you call when all you wanna do is fall, fall down?
Fall down, fall down, fall down
Fall down, fall down, fall down, fall down

And it's getting harder and harder and harder every day
It's getting harder and harder and harder to say
I'm sorry, I'm sorry

What can I say? It's a price that I have to pay
Myself to blame as I'm souking out here in the rain
Fall down, fall down, fall down, fall down
Fall down, fall down, fall down, fall down

And it's getting harder and harder and harder every day
It's getting harder and harder and harder to say
It's getting harder and harder and harder to say
I'm sorry, I'm sorry

Fall down, fall down, fall down, fall down
Fall down, fall down, fall down, fall down
Fall down, fall down, fall down, fall down

And it's getting harder and harder and harder every day
It's getting harder and harder and harder to say
It's getting harder and harder and harder every day
It's getting harder and harder and harder to say
I'm sorry
