

Sugarplum Fairy, Last Chance

I got the clue from you looking at me
Tired of waiting for you to turn me on
It's getting late and this is my last dance
Are you gonna take your last chance?

Got the clue from you looking at me
Tired of waiting for you to turn me on
It's getting late and this is my last dance
Are you gonna take your last chance?

Say I don't know why you should stay
She walks away she wants you
Say I don't know why you should stay
She walks away she wants you
Ohoho

I got the clue from me looking at you
Tired to waiting for me to turn you on
It's getting late and this is your last dance
Am I gonna take my last chance?

I saw you on a crowded dancefloor
Dark blonde hair and tight blue jeans
Getting late and this is the last dance
Am I gonna take my last chance?

Say I don't know why you should stay
She walks away she wants you
Say I don't know why you should stay
She walks away she wants you

I got the clue from you looking at me
Tired of waiting for you to turn me on
It's getting late and this is my last dance
Are you gonna take your last chance?

Got the clue from you looking at you
Tired of waiting for me to turn you on
