

Sugarplum Fairy, Never Thought I'd Say That It's

Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
But this feeling of remorse is all I've got
Yes, I never thought I'd say that it's alright

When I was a poor boy my father said to me
That if you wanna win in life you gotta live it free
But as time goes by before my eyes the words of soundness washed away
And until I reminisced today I was blinded by the rage

Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
But this feeling of remorse is all I've got
Yes, I never thought I'd say that it's alright

Looking in the looking glass I'm seeing through your soul
And everytime you hesitate I'm feeling kind of cold
And as time goes by I slowly sigh so please make up your mind
You breathe so very heavily as you slowly stepping down

Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
But this feeling of remorse is all I've got
Yes, I never thought I'd say that it's alright

So easy to say goodbye when all your tears already dried
It's so easy to say goodbye when all your tears already dried
So easy to say goodbye when all your tears already dried
It's so easy to say goodbye when all your tears already dried

Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
But this feeling of remorse is all I've got
Yes, I never thought I'd say that it's alright

Yes, I never ever thought I'd say that it's alright
Yes, I never thought I'd say that it's alright
Yes, I never thought I'd say that it's alright
