

Sugarplum Fairy, Rock'n'roll Tragedy

I try to figure out
The fallen eye-tear a raindrop struck my mind
It looks so good it's messed so fine
Smile
I fall and close my eyes
It's pure subtle vibes hostility provide
It looked so good It's messed so fine
I am so tired I haven't slept for months
just to see your face tear my soul and so
Go shout and jive for me and I will be your
Rock'n'roll tragey
Go shout and jive for me and you will see
There's nothing for us to see Rock'n'roll tragedy
I caught you there last night
I made up the sight a fantasy reply
I look so good it's messed so fine
I am so tired I haven't slept for months
just to see your face tear my soul and so
Go shout and jive for me and I will be your
Rock'n'roll tragey
Go shout and jive for me and you will see
There's nothing for us to see Rock'n'roll tragedy
