

Sugarplum Fairy, Stone Walls

Saw you rolling by it was then you caught my eye
Like eyes in a shimmering night I was falling out of line
I dressed up properly you saw me in a glance
I won't go near you again if you say so not a chance
Take me oh brake me girl I'm about to twirl
Show me what you can again and again
Take of your clothes properly feel us getting tense
I won't go near you again if you say so not a chance
But I won't do you no harm
Clearing your tear the fear in the sphere
The hole in my heart you filled from the start
Push me over the edge I know that you will catch
Me and you will see to you I feel attached
Take of my clothes properly make my youth entrench
I won't go near you again if you say so not a chance
Fall out come down wall stonewalls
Falling out of a tune I'm gliding sliding away from you
Oh what can I do?
Took my heart properly now give me back my sense
I won't go.....
Say you blow away from me to day I can say I'm free
But who really care these days if we had a history
The pictures are still in my head but for you I could be dead
I won't go....
If you say so maybe then
