

Sugarplum Fairy, The Escapologist

If there was something that I said
Let me know
I've got a feeling that it's wrong
'Cause it's gone
This little maze and all of these complex mind games
Criss Angel wouldn't find a way

And everything that I've done
Seems so wrong
Everything that I've done
Seems so wrong
And everyone that I loved
I dismissed 'cause I'm the escapologist

If there is something I can do
Help me through
The only thing I know for sure
I love you
I'm like a child except my imagination's lost
My mind is broken there's just rust

And everything that I've done
Seems so wrong
Everything that I've done
Seems so wrong
And everyone that I loved
I dismissed 'cause I'm the escapologist

If there is something that you hide
Let me know
'Cause I might leave you all alone
Because I think that there is something that you've missed
I am an escapologist

And everything that I've done
Seems so wrong
Everything that I've done
Seems so wrong
And everyone that I loved
I dismissed 'cause I'm the escapologist

The escapologist
The escapologist
The escapologist
The escapologist
