

Sugarplum Fairy, The Restless Breakout

Standing in a park wearing feathers
Asking people about the weather
I say know you cry every night
So would I but I'm just to dry
It's what I said
I said hey babe
I'll buy you a drink then I'll be fine
Fill your heart with the red wine
Running around in circles
Accused of disorder and murders
It's what she said
I said hey babe
Could have a lot for your love lot for your love a lot for your love
Well
If I knew what to say to make it go away
I say it over and over again
See the world from your eyes, then you will rise
I say it over and over again
I said hey babe I said hey babe
Walk with me babe I said hey babe
Burn marks on broken harts
Time to run cause it's getting dark
