

Suicidal Romance, Lonely Tears

I fell the coldness deep inside
And burning pain inside my veins
The life is leaving me behind
But I don't want to fade away

All my tears are for You my darling
My heart is willing me to go
I'll break the shield of love
And slowly will fade away
But You can always find me
By lonely tears in rain

I'll never let You see me cry
And feel all sorrow that's in my heart
I never want You to see me die
So I will leave You all behind
