

Sum 41, No Brains

Can't step in my way
Headfirst into love and dismay
It's like beating the dead
(I guess it's over then)
I can't stop going out on my head
Whatever this could be I'd never know
I never said it'd be the end all to be all

I hate you today
I can't find a way
Don't drag me down now

Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead end situation
Is just not worth my time

It's no better today
I never thought it would end up this way
You've got something to say
(You've got something to say)
Don't want to hear if it gets in my way

(All) this confusion, wondering, so overwhelmed
(All) Disillusion seems so clear
(Can't) find your conclusion, disappointing evolution
Not (all) things are what they appear

So what's the point of this hell
I know you too well
We're running backwards

Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead end situation
Is just not worth my time

Bomb waiting so frustrating
I'm so sick of
All this tension not to mention
I'm so sick of

Can't take it
We won't make it
Just save yourself this trouble
Can't take it quite for yourself
'Cause I'm just fine

You speak for all of us when you can't be heard
(I can't help you any more than)
I bet you haven't listened to not one word
(I have helped myself before)
You speak for all of us when
(So sick of you, so sick of)
You can't be heard
(So sick of you, so sick of)
I bet you haven't listened
(So sick of you, so sick of)
To not one word
(So sick of you, so sick)

Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead end situation
Is just not worth my time

But waiting so frustrating
I'm so sick of
All this tension not to mention
I'm so sick of
Sick of you
