

Summer Dying, Failure

Verse 1:

Deafened by silence
I scream out loud
No one hears me
As my body falls to the ground
I reach out for you, but you turn away
Can't you see my love will never fade away?

Chorus 1:

I cry out to you
I cry out to God
No one hears me
Are my cries in vain?
Someone listen to me
Please hold out your hand
I'm drowning in sorrow
My insides are now dead

Verse 2:

My heart grows cold
As black as the night
The pain in my soul
Will never subside
Something hurts
That I have never felt
This pain is too much
Without someone else

Chorus 2:

I cry out to you
And cry out to God
No one hears me
Are my cries in vain?
Someone listen to me
Please hold out your hand
I'm drowning in sorrow
My insides are now dead

Bridge 1:

My life has been destroyed
My soul has been raped
I hear the mocking laugh
Of those whom decide my fate
As time grows cold
I feel lost in my mind
Through all this pain
My dreams I cannot hold

My life was a ploy
As fake as my smile
Through all this pain
Death I've felt awhile

(Repeat Chorus 2)
