

Summer Dying, Final Day

Verse 1:

Hate runs through my veins again
A ripped scar exposing
My soul
My blackened heart tears, My breath away
Falling into a world of decay
Tearing streaming, icy
Cold-dead
A darkened thought kills my will to live
Why do I let this pain live inside?
Find the will to end this suffering

Chorus:

Where is this God
To which you pray
All my fears, unanswered prayers
Forever washed away
I see no light, no sign of hope
Through this world of hate
A mind full of rage, a heart full of pain
I await the final day

Verse 2:

The sun sets upon my tortured eyes
Praying to the voided skies
I feel only emptiness
Left inside
Everything I was has now died
Why do I feel so empty now?
My faith is gone
My soul was torn out
Smothered in tears
I live in doubt
I can never face
My face again

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Fallen tears
I look to the sky
Save me
I start to cry
Without ever knowing why
Please make this emptiness subside
Please God take the pain away
Away

Lord come and take me
Fly me away
A bleeding heart, torn apart
Forever I will stay
I fall to my knees
And say my last goodbye

Verse 3:

My innocence has been ripped away
A bleeding heart, a broken mind
An eternity's last fray
A tempting thought of an existence without the hate
A homicide, a suicide
Please take the pain away
Shouting to nothing
In an empty cry

Where are you now
As I start to die
Ending my pain is what I had to do
Now my hate is always
With you

(Repeat Chorus)
