

Summer Dying, The Beauty Of Holding Nothing

Verse 1:

It was all...

The light we came to fight

In the moon and the midnight fog

We are delivered

I wish to never see your face again

I wished it all away

I will always love you

We came to say goodbye...goodbye

Pre-Chorus:

I can't always play the fool for you

I won't always be wrong

Though it seems you enjoy my misery

I won't always be wrong...wrong

Chorus:

It is always raining in my heart

Since you left me behind

The beauty of holding nothing

Not a single thing

Verse 2:

It was all...

The night we came to fight

With the moon and the midnight fog

We are delivered

I wish to never see her face again

I wished my life away

I will always love...you

The beauty of holding nothing
