

Sunny Day Real Estate, Shadows

In the shadows buried in me lies a child's toy.
In the shadows the name is unknown to me.
In the shadows grey crusaders with tails
mother made. In the shadows will to become their pride.
In the shadows i climbed mountains for chairs.
Don't look down.
try this figure out memorize their words for hope
In the shadows stood up high for all to see
In the shadows counting these numbers down.
no one can
take away leaf falls short dreams over a lie's the same
if i may weep.
In the shadows buried in me lies a child's toy
tried to figure out memorize their words for hope.
