

Sunny Side Up, If You Could See Me Now

I could write a symphony or kill you with stupidity your eyes the wouldn't even blink I'm not your type of man I think

I'd gladly give my heart to you but I don't think you want me to cos thinking's all I ever did and actin' like a little kid

And if you could see me now it would surely help to ease the pain somehow
and if I would call your name would you smile and walk away or be askin' me to stay

If shyness was a prize to wear then I would be a millionaire our love is like a picture book there's nothing you can do but look

So I don't want to break the ice cos watching you is twice as nice but nothing in the way you do is givin' me the slightest clue

And if you could see me now
It would surely help to ease the pain
Somehow
would you smile and walk away
or be askin' me to stay

and if I would call your name
and if you could see me now
